TED PHILLIPS
PRESIDENT & CEO

Ted Phillips was named President and Chief Executive Officer on February 10, 1999. He is the fourth person to serve as president in the organization's storied 91-year history following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., and George S. Halas. Since taking on the top leadership role, Phillips has insisted on attention to detail and smooth execution at every level of the Bears' operation. He has solidified the long-term stability of the Club, while staying keenly focused on bringing a 10th championship to the NFL's premier franchise.

Phillips has the Bears back among the NFL's elite through his focus on continuity at the top management levels. Part of his plan in revitalizing both the business and football operations has been to hire high character, intelligent and driven individuals who share common goals and philosophies on how to build a consistent winner.

Drawing from 28 years of experience with the Chicago Bears, Phillips has shown effective leadership skills by empowering his executive staff to create an environment of collective responsibility in running the day-to-day operations of the Club. Phillips is involved in all critical decisions of the Bears and continues to strive to make all aspects of the Bears organization the best in the NFL. Always insisting on a team first attitude, Phillips has surrounded himself with individuals who fit the organization's character, culture and values. The team dynamic was crucial in the Bears return to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years following the 2006 campaign. Phillips' other highlights include hiring the team's first general manager in over 14 years, creating and continuing a strong customer service mentality throughout the organization, returning the Bears training camp to Illinois and presiding over four division championships (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) after a decade-long drought.

During the 2001 off-season, Phillips hired Jerry Angelo, giving new direction to the Bears football operations. He went on to extend Angelo's contract following the 2003 and 2006 seasons, creating continuity and stability across the front office.

Fans have responded favorably since the Bears training camp returned to the State of Illinois in 2002, turning out in record numbers over the three-week training period on the campus of Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, IL.

Phillips' leadership was also key in negotiating a new home for the team at Soldier Field. Not only making the club more financially competitive, it provides the best fans in professional sports, the 4th Phase, with a stadium complete with all the amenities they deserve. The Soldier Field game-day experience is second to none, and the 4th Phase has been critical in creating a great home-field advantage for the team as the Bears continue to maintain their proud history and tradition on Chicago's magnificent lakefront.

Among the many local and national awards, the Soldier Field project was selected by the New York Times as one of the nation's best architectural buildings in 2003, and Midwest Construction selected Soldier Field as "Overall Project of the Year."

Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations for six seasons starting in 1993. Recognized for his many years of handling the Bears' contract negotiations and team finances, Phillips currently serves on two League executive committees, whose mission is to analyze the economic, legal and operational aspects of both the salary cap system and the collective bargaining agreement between the NFL and the NFL Players Association. Phillips also serves as a member of the NFL employee benefits committee.

Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the team's Controller, a position he held for four years.

Prior to joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned a master of marketing and management degree from the Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born in Oneida, N.Y., and grew up in Nashua, N.H. He has three sons, Matthew, Max and Frank.

JERRY ANGELO
GENERAL MANAGER

Jerry Angelo has brought a clear vision to Bears football after guiding Chicago to four division championships since joining the team as general manager prior to the 2001 campaign, culminating in the team's 2006 NFC Championship and the organization's first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years.

In the last three offseasons, Angelo has signed Pro Bowl wide receiver Roy Williams (2011), coordinated one of the biggest free agent acquisitions in franchise history, signing five-time Pro Bowl DE Julius Peppers (2010) and orchestrated one of the biggest trades in NFL history, acquiring Pro Bowl QB Jay Cutler from the Denver Broncos (2009).

Meanwhile, rewarding core players, building through the draft and managing the salary cap are the cornerstones of Angelo's direction. His plan has created stability in Chicago and generated hope as the Bears continue to build upon a strong nucleus of talent.

After winning the NFC North crown in 2010, Chicago has four division titles over the last 10 years, ending an 11-year drought in Angelo's first season in 2001. Angelo's tenure has yielded an overall regular season record of 87-73 (.544), plus a 3-4 postseason mark. Under Angelo's watch, Chicago has the third-most regular season wins in the NFC and eighth-most in the NFL over that same time. The Bears 58 wins in the past six seasons are second best in the NFC and sixth best in the NFL.

Angelo's mantra during his tenure in Chicago has been "reward your own" and he has followed through by taking a proactive approach with the team's key players. Over the last three seasons, Angelo extended the contracts of NFL Pro Bowlers Lance Briggs, Jay Cutler, Robbie Gould, Devin Hester and Brian Urlacher. Over 65 percent of the Bears 2011 roster is signed through the next two seasons.

The draft, the primary means of bringing new talent to any NFL team, has been accentuated under Angelo. The efforts of his scouting staff have been highlighted after each of the last five seasons as five Bears players drafted by Angelo have received 14 Pro Bowl selections: Lance Briggs (drafted in 2003), Tommie Harris (2004), Nathan Vasher (2004), Devin Hester (2006) and Johnny Knox (2009). Briggs has been selected to six straight Pro Bowls. Hester has been named to three (2006-07 and 2010), Knox was selected to the Pro Bowl after his rookie season in 2009, while Harris was selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2005-07 and Vasher played in the Pro Bowl following the 2005 season.

Managing the salary cap is a key element to maintaining a team's continuity and providing the ability to sign talent through free agency. Angelo and his staff have excelled in this area allowing the Bears to attract key contributors through the free agent market each off-season of his tenure.

Continuity in the Bears football operations was solidified in the 2004 off-season when Angelo hired Lovie Smith to be the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history. Angelo and Smith spent five years (1996-2000) together in Tampa Bay, helping build a team that went on to capture a Super Bowl championship in 2002. Angelo has created long-term stability for the Bears twice signing Smith to a contract extension (during the 2007 a 2011 offseasons), the latter through 2013.

In his first season leading the Bears football staff, Angelo helped guide the team to its first division title in 11 years. He was handed the reins of the Chicago Bears football operations on June 12, 2001 as the team's first general manager since 1986 (Jerry Vainisi). Angelo has 42 years of football experience, including 21 as a NFL scout and 24 in the NFC North Division (includes 15 years in former NFC Central Division). He oversees the Bears entire football staff including football operations, personnel and coaching along with all decisions regarding the draft, free agency, trades and the salary cap.

Angelo accepted his current post after spending 14 years overseeing Tampa Bay's scouting department as the Buccaneers' Director of Player Personnel. The Buccaneers averaged almost 10 wins over his last four years with three playoff berths and one NFC Championship appearance (1999).

Prior to joining Tampa Bay in 1987, Angelo spent five seasons (1982-86) as a regional scout for the New York Giants, including their Super Bowl XXI campaign. He spent 1981 in the Canadian Football League as the Calgary Stampeders linebackers coach. Angelo broke into the NFL as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys in 1980. After playing defensive tackle for three years (1968-70) at Miami of Ohio for coaches Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory, Angelo graduated with a bachelor's degree in social sciences and a master's in secondary administration while working as a graduate assistant at the university in 1971. He went on to coach eight more years in the collegiate ranks beginning at Colorado State as a part-time defensive line coach (1972) and ending with a five-year stint as the D-line coach at Syracuse (1975-79). In 1973 and 1974, he served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Tampa before the Spartans cut the football program.

Jerry and his wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Leisa, who is married to Brad Rice, and Sutton.

LOVIE SMITH
HEAD COACH

Lovie Smith enters his eighth season as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, tied for the second longest tenured head coach with their current team in the NFC and tied for fifth longest in the NFL. Smith has a regular season coaching record of 63-49 (.563) and is 66-52 overall including the playoffs after leading the Bears to an 11-5 regular season record, NFC North crown and NFC Championship game appearance in 2010.

The Bears have won three division titles under Smith's tutelage, most in the NFC North since 2004.

One of just nine current head coaches to reach the 60-win plateau, Smith's 66 wins are third most in franchise history, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas and Mike Ditka. Included in those 66 wins is an NFC Championship giving the Bears their first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years (2006).

Smith set forth with three stated goals when he was hired as the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 15, 2004: end the decade of dominance by the Green Bay Packers over the Bears, capture the NFC North Division for Chicago and win the Super Bowl. The Bears have won eight of 15 contests against Green Bay during Smith's tenure, contributing to Chicago winning the division in 2005, 2006 and 2010.

Smith, the 2005 NFL Coach of the Year, has successfully laid Chicago's foundation for success in seven seasons on the job by establishing his cornerstone of aggressive defensive play.

Since taking over as head coach of the Bears, Smith has helped Chicago's defense to the second-best cumulative Aikman rating in the NFL. The Aikman ratings are based on five major categories: yards per play, adjusted points scored, turnovers, first downs and red zone performance.

Finishing tied for third in the NFL in takeaways in 2010 with 35, the Bears lead the league with 235 during Smith's tenure as head coach. Over the last seven seasons, the Bears have scored 27.1 percent of their points off opponent turnovers, fifth-highest in the NFL. Chicago is also eighth in the NFL with 26 red-zone takeaways during Smith's tenure.

After ranking fourth in the NFL and second in the NFC in 2010 allowing 17.9 points per game, during Smith's first seven seasons at the helm, Chicago ranks fourth in the league having allowed 19.2 points per game and 238 total touchdowns allowed. Chicago gave up the fewest points in the NFC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, pacing the entire NFL in Smith's second year with the organization. Under Smith's tutelage the Bears lead the league by allowing the lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (33.8%), the second lowest opponent red zone scoring efficiency (79.6%) and have forced the most opponent three-and-out drives (382).

Chicago has found consistency under the even-keeled hand of Smith's direction, fashioning a regular season home record of 35-21 (.625) from 2004-10 while going 28-28 (.500) on the road during that time. The Bears went 5-3 at Soldier Field during the 2010 regular season (1-1 during the playoffs) and 6-2 away from home. It was the fifth time in Smith's seven seasons with the club that the Bears won five or more games at home in a single year. Chicago was 5-3 at home in 2009, 6-2 in 2006 and 2008 and 7-1 in the Windy City during 2005. Chicago was 7-1 on the road in 2006, tied with 1985 and 1986 for the team's best single-season road record since the inception of the 16-game schedule. The Bears were 8-16 (.333) on the road in the three years prior to Smith's arrival. By leading Chicago to records of 11-5 in 2005 and 2010 and 13-3 in 2006, Smith has guided the Bears to three of their top eight seasons in terms of regular season victories during the era of the 16-game schedule.

Smith has returned Chicago to its preferred place as a power in the NFC North, fashioning a divisional record of 26-16 (.619) during his time with the Bears, leading Chicago to a winning record over each of its three divisional opponents. Smith led Chicago to 5-1 intra-divisional records in each of the 2005, 2006 and 2010 campaigns, defeating all three opponents at least once in each season, a feat last accomplished by the Bears in 1991. Chicago began the 2006 season with three consecutive wins over divisional opponents for the first time in team history. The Bears also won its first 11 games against NFC opponents in 2006 en route to the second-best intra-conference mark in franchise history.

Lovie and MaryAnne have three sons, Mikal, Miles and Matthew as well as daughter-in-law, Kathleen, grandsons, Noah and Malachi. Lovie is very active in the community and he and his wife have started the Lovie and MaryAnne Smith Foundation (LAMAS) which helps worthy young people attend college, with the simple motto, "We start it - You finish it". The Smiths are Honorary chairs of the Ronald McDonald Capital Campaign to help build the world's largest Ronald McDonald House in the world, here in Chicago. For the seventh consecutive year, the Smiths served as honorary chairs of the American Diabetes Association Care to Cure Gala. Smith also purchases 10 tickets for every home game as part of the Bears ticket exchange program and donates them to Misericordia Home, a care community for persons with mild to profound developmental disabilities. The Smiths have become volunteers and sponsors of various events at Misericordia Home.

ROD MARINELLI
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ASST. HEAD COACH

Rod Marinelli is entering his third season with Chicago and his second as defensive coordinator/assistant head coach after spending 2009 as the defensive line/assistant head coach.

Marinelli, who was hired by the Bears on January 10, 2009, has spent 15 seasons as an NFL coach after spending three years as head coach of the Detroit Lions (2006-09) and his first 10 as a defensive line coach in Tampa Bay (1996-2005). In the last four seasons with the Buccaneers (2002-05), Marinelli added the duties of assistant head coach as well.

In 2010, the Bears defense ranked third in the NFL in offensive points allowed (256), second in rush yards per game (90.1), third in opponent passer rating (74.4), tied for third in takeaways (35), second in three-and-out drives forced (57) and fifth in opponent yards per play (5.0). The Monsters of the Midway also ranked sixth in the NFL in third down defense (34.7 percent) in 2010 and ninth in total yards per game allowed (314.3). Chicago's 11 games with multiple takeaways were tied for second most in the NFL in 2010. The Bears were the only team in the league to allow multiple touchdowns passing in just two contests in 2010 and their 14 passing touchdowns allowed were second fewest in the NFL. Three players from the Bears defense were named to the Pro Bowl following the 2010 season: LB Lance Briggs, DE Julius Peppers and LB Brian Urlacher; the most for the unit since 2006. Peppers was also named to the All-Pro team and Urlacher and S Chris Harris were named second-team All Pro's by the Associated Press.

MIKE MARTZ
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Martz is in his second season as Chicago's offensive coordinator after being hired on February 1, 2010.

With Martz leading a balanced attack in his first year with the Bears, 2010 marked just the second time in franchise history that the Bears had a 3,000-yard passer (Jay Cutler, 3,274), 1,000-yard rusher (Matt Forté, 1,069) and 900-yard receiver (Johnny Knox, 960) joining the 1995 squad. The Bears were the quickest scoring team on offense in the NFL in 2010, averaging 3:02 per scoring drive.

In 2010, Cutler had a career-high six games with a 100-plus passer rating during the regular season, including four of the final six contests. Forté became just the second player in franchise history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season, joining Hall of Famer Walter Payton (1983).

Martz has 18 years of NFL coaching experience, including five full seasons as a head coach and five as an offensive coordinator. From 2000-05, Martz was head coach of the St. Louis Rams after spending one season as the team's offensive coordinator (1999). During those six full years with the Rams, Martz helped lead St. Louis to five playoff appearances, four 10-win seasons – including a franchise-best 14-2 record in 2001, three division titles, two Super Bowl appearances and one world championship (Super Bowl XXXIV). As a head coach, Martz compiled a 56-36 (.609) overall record including the playoffs. Martz's teams averaged 26.5 points per game when he was head coach, highest average among NFL head coaches all-time with 75-plus games.

DAVE TOUB
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Dave Toub enters his eighth season as Chicago's special teams coordinator after his unit finished tied for fourth in the NFL (according to the Dallas Morning News ranking system), ranking in the top third of the league for the seventh straight season after finishing No. 1 overall in 2006 and 2007. Toub has been associated with a special team's unit ranking No. 1 in four of the last 10 years. . In 2006 and 2007, the Bears became just the second team since the system was created in 1990 to finish with the No. 1 overall ranking in back-to-back seasons. He was voted as the Special Teams Coach of the Year by his NFL coaching peers after the 2006 season.

The 2010 season culminated with KR Devin Hester being named to his third Pro Bowl (2006, 2007, 2010) under Toub's guidance, after breaking the NFL record for career kick return touchdowns with 14. Hester's 2010 selection was the seventh Pro Bowl nod by a Bears special teams player under Toub: Johnny Knox (2009), ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2006 and 2007) and K Robbie Gould (2006).

BOB BABICH
LINEBACKERS COACH

Bob Babich enters his eighth year as an assistant coach with Chicago and sixth year of working with the linebackers. The first assistant to join Lovie Smith's inaugural coaching staff, Babich was initially hired by the Bears on January 17, 2004, as the team's linebackers coach. He added the title of assistant head coach for the 2006 season in which Chicago advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years. Babich assumed responsibility as the Bears defense coordinator on February 20, 2007, a title he held for two seasons. In 2008, he once again oversaw the linebackers while handling the duties of defensive coordinator.

During Babich's seven years with the team, the Bears linebacker corps has been arguably the most productive in the NFL. In 2010, Brian Urlacher and Lance Briggs were both selected to the Pro Bowl. It was the third time the duo was selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year with Babich as their coach.

Urlacher was named to his fourth Pro Bowl under Babich's tutelage in 2010 while breaking the franchise record for career tackles (1,556). Briggs became just the fourth linebacker in franchise history to be selected to six straight Pro Bowls.

GILL BYRD
ASST. DEFENSIVE BACKS/SAFETIES COACH

Gill Byrd, in his sixth season in Chicago, was hired on February 20, 2006. Byrd is entering his fourth season as the Bears assistant defensive backs/safeties coach. In 2007, he served as the assistant defensive backs coach after holding the position of defensive quality control coach in his first year with the team. He was promoted to his current role on January 16, 2008.

In 2010, under Byrd's tutelage, Chris Harris was named a second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press after finishing tied for 10th in the NFL and tied for third among safeties with a career-high five interceptions.

Byrd came to Chicago from St. Louis where he began his coaching career in 2003. His first two seasons were spent as the Rams defensive assistant before being promoted to assistant secondary coach in 2005. 4th PHASE

The first phase provides the offense. The second phase brings the defense. The third phase is truly "special." But the Fourth Phase makes it all matter.

Bears fans are the 4th Phase and they provide the inspiration for everything the organization does, on and off the field. They motivate and inspire. They strongly express their opinions. They bring the noise to the city on Bears Sundays, in the stadium, at home or in a packed bar, cheering along with millions of others. They are the lifeblood of the Chicago Bears.

When the opponent steps onto the field, they don't just face a team. They face a city. Wins are celebrated - losses, agonized. But always as one team.

LIFE HAS ENOUGH CHALLENGES.

EXERCISING SHOULDN'T BE ONE OF THEM.

Coughing or wheezing during physical activity may mean exercise-induced bronchospasm (EIB)

Do you find it hard to breathe while you're being active? If you experience coughing, wheezing, or chest tightness, you may be one of the estimated 30 million Americans who have a treatable condition called EIB.[1,2]

For the facts on EIB, visit EIBactive.com

At EIBactive.com, you can learn more about EIB, including how proper diagnosis and treatment can help you continue to exercise and stay active. You can also take the EIB self-screener to find out if you may be suffering from EIB. Don't let EIB keep you from reaching your full potential. Get the facts, and learn to manage EIB.

Announcing

THE NEXT GENERATION

in TPO roofing.

GAF scientists have developed EverGuard® Extreme™ TPO... designed for solar and other high heat applications...

Solar panels (which are dark in color by nature) can create areas of high temperatures up to 190°F on adjacent roof surfaces. Other highly reflective architectural structures (such as mirrored glass) can act as solar magnifiers and concentrate sunlight onto nearby roof surfaces. This concentrated sunlight can be far more intense than ambient sunlight — leading to premature membrane failure.

EverGuard® Extreme™ TPO is the next generation in TPO membranes—with the best guarantee in the industry!

GAF scientists have created the next generation in TPO membranes, built to handle the extreme demands that new rooftop applications can place on roofing membranes. EverGuard® Extreme™ TPO uses proprietary stabilizers and UV absorbers to achieve weathering performance far beyond current standards. That means more protection for your customers — and for you.

UP TO 35 YEAR NDL GUARANTEE

Not eligible for Well Roof™ Advantage Guarantee extension. See guarantee for complete coverage and restrictions

SO WONDERFULLY FRESH, OTHER SALADS ARE BROWN WITH ENVY.

The crisp green salads of Fresh Express are picked at the peak of freshness. Chilled within hours. Then rushed to Jewel. Getting there so fast, so fresh, they come with a money-back guarantee. Which is unlikely to improve any other salad's mood.

Fresh Express. Consistently, deliciously fresher.

PLAY AT YOUR OWN RISK!

Now in our professional opinion, nothing is as fun as WhirlyBall. But LaserTron, pool tables, video games, enormous televisions, foosball, air hockey, and giant cheeseburgers sure come close. We at WhirlyBall refuse to take chances, so we lumped it all under one giant roof!

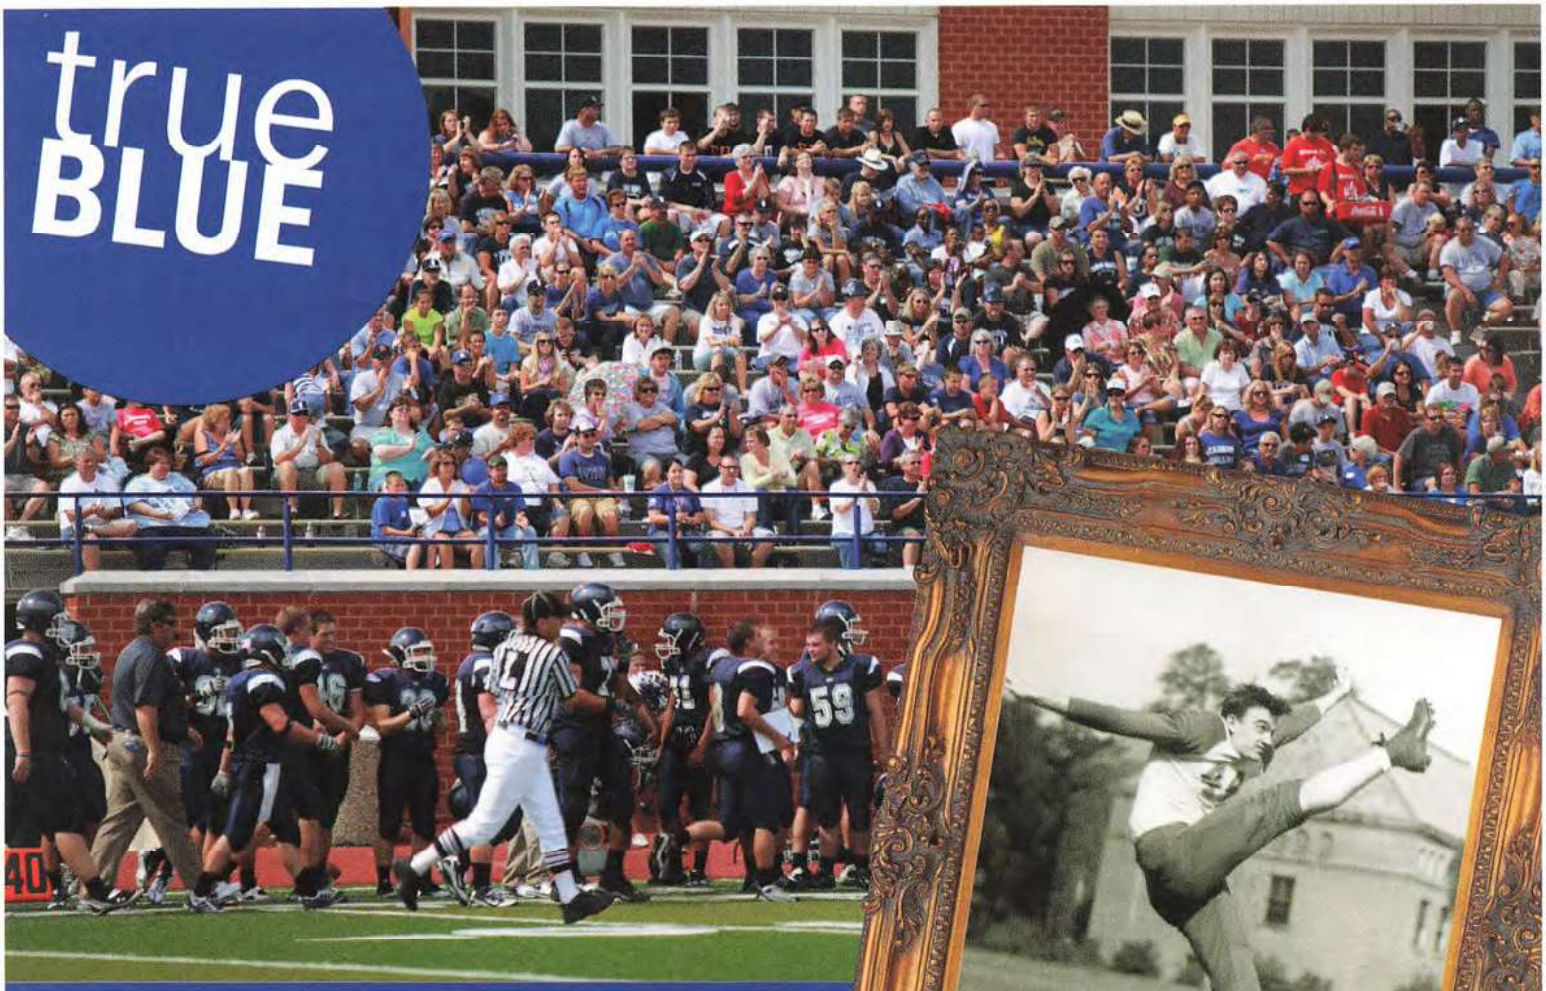
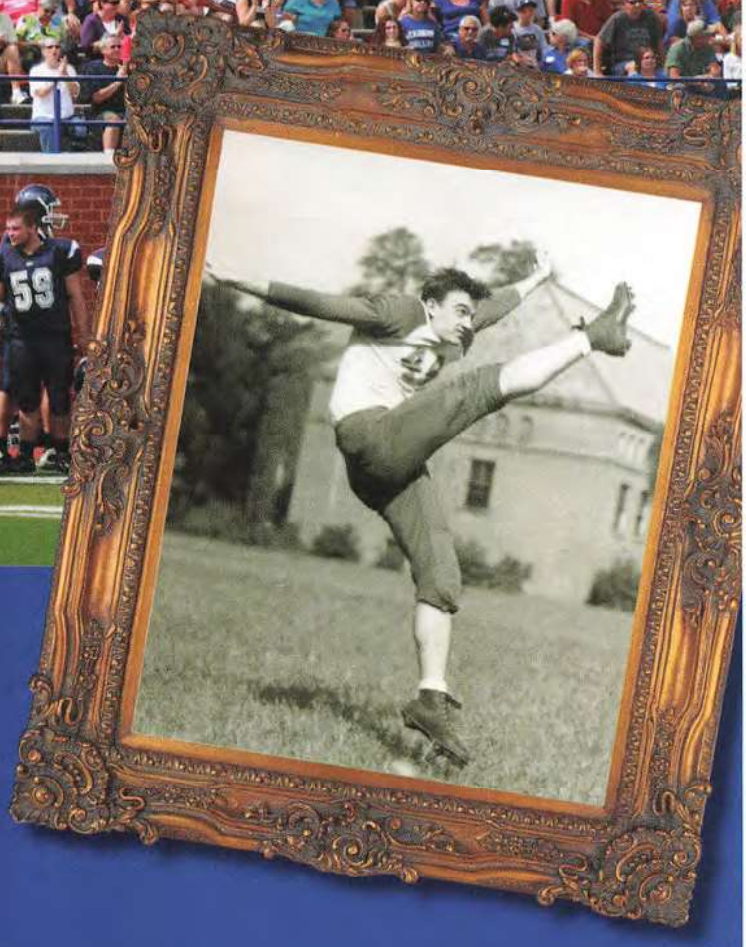
true BLUE





True vision.

Since 1829 Illinois College students have achieved academic excellence and prepared for lifelong success thanks to the private investments of alumni and friends like Dr. Scott. We consider our Chicago-area donors true visionaries of our liberal arts college.

Dr. Harvey Scott Jr. '42 was drafted into the NFL upon graduation from Illinois College. He enlisted in the Army during World War II where he achieved the rank of First Lieutenant and was decorated with the Air Medal. His plane was shot down over France, and he spent the next year as a prisoner of war in a German prison camp. Liberated after the war ended, Scott attended medical school and went on to become a celebrated surgeon, distinguished member of his community and ardent supporter of Illinois College.

2011 CHICAGO BEARS
HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1920's

9/17/20–George Halas, representing the Decatur Staleys, meets with representatives of 11 other clubs at Ralph Hay's Hupmobile showroom in Canton, Ohio, forming the American Professional Football Association – which later became the NFL. Membership is set at $100.

1920–The Staleys shut out 10 of 13 foes, losing only to the Chicago Cardinals (7-6 at Normal Park), and post a 10-1-2 record. Each player is paid $1,900 for the season.

1921–A. E. Staley gives Halas the club with $5,000 to keep the Staleys name for the year. Decatur Staleys become Chicago Staleys, play in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926), and win the APFA title with 9-1-1 record. Halas makes Dutch Sternaman his partner.

1/28/22–Franchise renamed Chicago Bears.

11/27/22–First Chicago player deal: Bears buy tackle Ed Healey's contract from the Rock Island Independents for $100–twice the going rate for a franchise that season.

11/22/25–Harold "Red" Grange signs with Bears and pro football leaves its cradle. His agent, C.C. (Cash & Carry) Pyle, negotiates a $100,000 deal with the Bears. Halas takes the Bears and Grange on a coast-to-coast tour that sees the club play 19 games from Nov. 26 through Jan. 31 interrupted only by a two-week rest. The Bears post a 13-5-1 record on the trip.

11/26/25–Grange's first game–36,000 see Bears and Cardinals tie 0-0 in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926) with Grange held to 36 yards.

1/16/26–Grange gets two TDs as the Bears impress 75,000 in the LA Coliseum beating the LA Tigers 17-7.

3/1/26–Bears open offices at 111 W. Washington in Chicago.

1930's

1930–After a 4-9-2 1929 season, George Halas replaces himself as head coach with Ralph Jones. Jones posts a 24-10-7 record during his three seasons.

12/15/30–Bears and Cardinals play football's first indoor game on an 80-yard field in Chicago Stadium. The exhibition aids unemployment; Bears win 9-7 before 10,000 fans.

11/15/31–New Yorkers (including Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Mayor Jimmy Walker) in field boxes at $100 a seat watch Bears top Giants at Polo Grounds 12-6.

12/18/32–Bronko Nagurski hits Red Grange with a two-yard TD pass and the Bears top the Portsmouth Spartans 9-0 for the NFL championship. The game was played before 11,198, indoors at Chicago Stadium on an 80-yard field.

1932–Franchise loses $18,000, prompting Dutch Sternaman to unload his half of the Bears to George Halas.

1933–George Halas returns as head coach and takes club out of town for training camp for the first time. University of Notre Dame is the host.

11/5/33–Boston Redskins beat Bears, 10-0, ending Chicago's 16-game unbeaten string.

12/17/33–Bears use rookie Jack Manders' accurate kicking for 11 points and defeat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game.

1934–Halas University, the Bears alumni association begins. Annually, Bear veterans return during season for Homecoming Weekend.

1934–Bears hold training camp at Lane Tech High in Chicago.

8/31/34–A classic is born as 79,432 watch the NFL champion Bears held to a scoreless tie by the first College All-Star team in a game sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities at Soldier Field.

12/2/34–Rookie Beattie Feathers becomes first pro to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,004), leading the NFL.

12/9/34–Undefeated Bears slip before Giants in NFL title tilt at Polo Grounds 30-13 before 35,059. With Chicago leading 10-3 at the half, NY dons basketball sneakers and scores 27 points.

1935–Training camp is conducted at St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wisconsin.

1936–Bears make Joe Stydahar, a tackle from West Virginia, their first draft pick ever.

12/12/37–Bears win Western Division title but lose NFL Championship 28-21 to Redskins at Wrigley Field. Sammy Baugh hits 18 of 33 for 335 yards and three TDs. Jack Manders scores

15 of the Bears points. A Chicago player's share is $127.78.

7/25/39–Future Hall of Famer Sid Luckman signs his first contract after being selected by the Bears with the second pick of the 1939 NFL draft.

1940's

12/8/40–Ten Bears tally TDs as Chicago rips Washington 73-0 for the NFL title before 36,034 in D.C. The rout signals the beginning of pro football's modern era with the formal unveiling of the T-formation. Each player receives $873.

1941–Bear Down, Chicago Bears, the Bears new fight song, is published.

12/14/41–Bears and Packers agree their playoff game should be played to a "sudden death" finish in event of tie. NFL adopts plan 1/24/42.

12/21/41–Bears throttle the New York Giants 37-9 for the NFL Championship.

1942–George Halas departs in October for the US Navy. The Bears win their final six games, finish the season 11-0, and advance to the title game but lose to Washington, 14-6.

1943–Hunk Anderson and Luke Johnsos co-coach the wartime Bears for the next three seasons, compiling a 15-11-2 record.

11/14/43–Sid Luckman becomes the first pro to pass for 400+ yards in a game, scorching the Giants for 433 yards and seven TDs.

12/26/43–The Bears blast Washington 41-21 in Wrigley Field for the NFL title before 34,320 fans. Sid Luckman throws five TD passes (2 each to Harry Clark and Dante Magnani). Bronko Nagurski scores his last Bear TD, a 3-yard run.

12/15/46–With George Halas around for the full season, the Bears whip the Giants 24-14 before a record NFL title crowd of 58,346 in the Polo Grounds. After opening with a 21-yard TD pass to Ken Kavanaugh, Sid Luckman gets the winning score on a 19-yard bootleg.

12/19/47–Bears make the first trade for a draft choice, then select QB Bobby Layne in the 1948 draft.

12/11/49–Johnny Lujack sets NFL passing record with 468 yards against the Cardinals.

1950's

12/17/50–Bears and Rams tie for Western Division title with 9-3 marks but Rams trip Bears in LA 24-14 to break the tie.

1956–Halas retires for a third time. Paddy Driscoll gets the position.

12/30/56–Giants, with their sneakers again, trounce Chicago 47-7 before 56,836 in Yankee Stadium for NFL title.

11/2/58–Bears and Rams establish NFL attendance record drawing 90,833 paid (100,470 actual) in the LA Coliseum. Rams win 41-35.

HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHIES

GEORGE S. HALAS
February 2, 1895 — October 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award–the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.
September 4, 1925 — December 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just four presidents in the franchise's 87-year history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey and current president Ted Phillips. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ball boy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

EDWARD W. MCCASKEY
April 27, 1919 — April 8, 2003

Edward (Ed) W. McCaskey served as an executive with the Bears for 36 years, serving as Chairman Emeritus of the club from 1999 until his death in 2003. He was the team's second Chairman of the Board, succeeding team founder George Halas in 1983 following 17 years as the team's Vice President and Treasurer. McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. He contributed to numerous charitable and civic organziations on behalf of the Bears and served as the guiding force behind the Brian Piccolo Fund.

Morton College, the second oldest community college in Illinois, was founded in 1924 to meet Chicago's educational demands while reaching out to the Chicagoland communities as they became a national hub of economic activity. Starting as a small college renting space from a high school, Morton College has grown to become a flagship junior college with a beautiful campus, vibrant student athletic and extracurricular programs, and a strong academic standing among community colleges throughout Illinois.

Over the decades, Morton College's university transfer program has become known state-wide for academic excellence. The College's curriculum and mission also has expanded to include career, community, continuing and adult education programs. Just as the College started in 1924 with 11 teachers and 76 students dedicated to a future-oriented philosophy, the College renews that commitment in the 21st century with a series of renovations and upgrades to ensure that the College continues to be the pride of the Chicagoland area for future generations.

The renovated, award-winning Library opened in 2005 to accommodate the growing demands of Internet-driven students, with triple the number of computers, wireless access, group study rooms and a cyber-café. Science and computer laboratories were upgraded to state-of-the-art facilities that rival any in the country. A new Student Success Center, which houses a number of important student services including tutoring, placement testing and career assistance, opened in 2007. Students also are able to relax between classes in the Center, which is equipped with contemporary technology.

And finally, to tie it all back to the College's start in 1924, the College honors the rich industrial past of the metropolitan area with the 2007 opening of the Hawthorne Works Museum and Heritage Hall. This museum honors the thousands of hardworking Chicagoans who lived and worked in helping make Chicagoland great.

From a remarkable beginning to a bright, promising future, Morton College continues to move forward in welcoming new and future students wanting to find meaning in their lives and prosper through higher education.

Since our founding 86 years ago, Morton College has provided quality education with a personal touch to our students. No matter what your educational goals, we can help you reach them. Choose from an array of opportunities including: University Transfer, Career Placement, Continuing Education and Community Service. Located just off of I-55 and just 8 miles from the Chicago Loop, Morton College is the affordable option that is close to home. Classes are small and instruction is personalized, so begin exploring the possibilities today!

1 IN 5 KIDS IN AMERICA LIVES IN POVERTY, DENYING US A BRIGHTER FUTURE.

Save the Children's innovative education programs are delivering change to communities across the United States that have struggled with poverty for generations. We are breaking this tragic cycle by making sure that the most vulnerable toddlers are ready for school, helping more elementary-level kids read at grade level, and introducing healthy eating and exercise into kids' lives.

With you on our side, we can make sure that every kid in America gets a fair start in life. Go to savethechildren.org/USA to learn about our proven results and find out how you can make a difference.

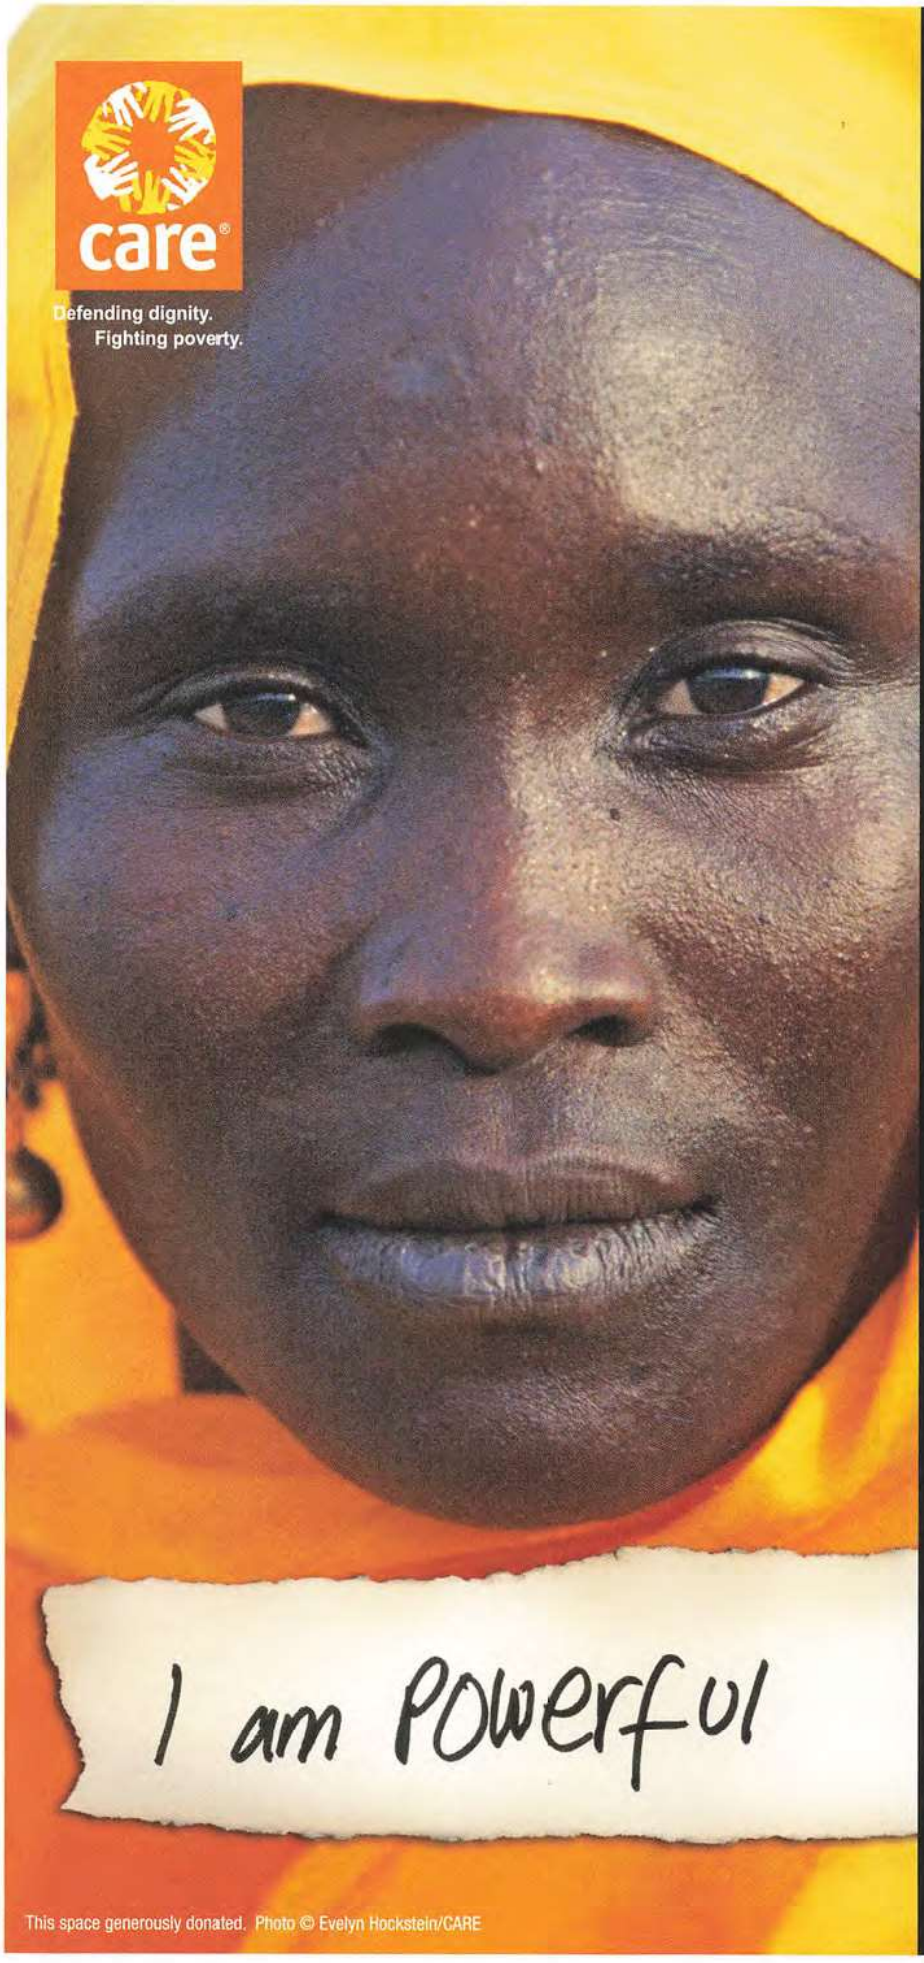
2011 opponents in bold.



Sadly, in many of the most poverty-stricken areas of the globe, women are not allowed to play a significant role in society. Which means half of the knowledge, talent and strength that could improve conditions is literally going to waste.

At CARE, we've found in one country after another that the potential women have to create change is nothing short of incredible.

That's why CARE today is focusing on empowering women worldwide. We're building and supporting schools that teach girls alongside boys. We're introducing community projects where men and women work together to accomplish what had seemed impossible, such as installing their own lines and treatment centers for clean water. We're creating innovative micro-loan programs to help women turn indigenous crafts and talents into products they can export.

We've seen the spark ignite when women realize how, with a little help getting started, they can become a force for lasting change.

We're trying to create a world where, finally, every person has the opportunity to realize their potential. Because in the end, that's the key to truly ending injustice and poverty.

SHE HAS the POWER to change her world.

YOU HAVE the POWER to help her do it.

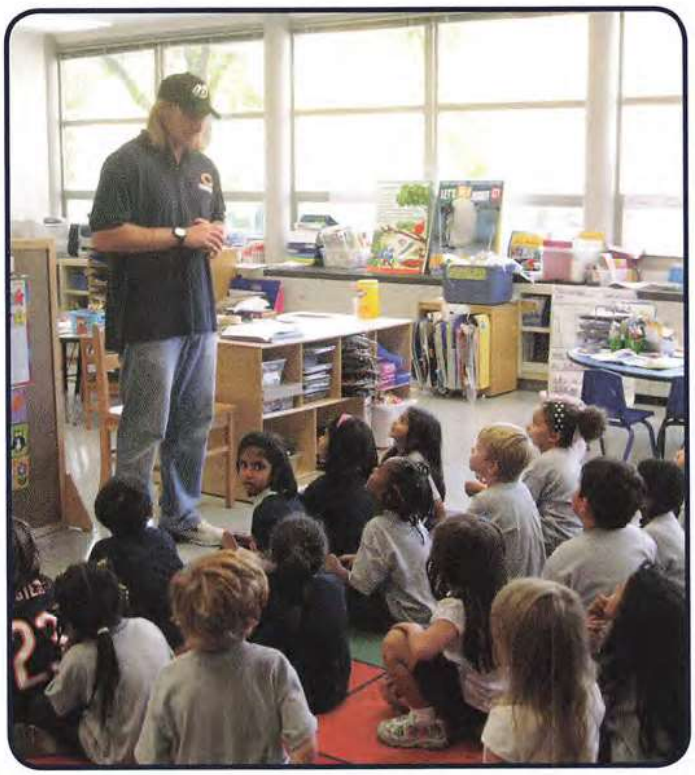
These initiatives provide essential support to schools, youth organizations, charities and community groups throughout the Chicago area.

EDUCATION

The Chicago Bears recognize the importance of offering and supporting education programs for children from grade levels kindergarten through high school. Whether teaching children to read, encouraging them to become better citizens, or discussing life experiences, our desire is to instill a characteristic vital to their development: hope. Children are our future, and an educated child equates to a better future.



HEALTH & WELLNESS

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting children and families affected by serious illness or disability. Our health and wellness initiatives include hospital visits, wish granting experiences, awareness programs, preventive measure campaigns, donations and advocacy. We provide support to health-focused charities and wellness programs that benefit specific causes. We are committed to brightening the spirits of those in need.

NFL PLAY 60

NFL PLAY 60 is the National Football League's youth health and fitness campaign. Designed to help tackle childhood obesity, PLAY 60 focuses on making the next generation of kids the most active and healthy by encouraging them to get at least 60 minutes of physical activity every day. The Chicago Bears implement the PLAY 60 message through a variety of in-school, after-school, web-based and youth-targeted programs, all emphasizing the importance of physical fitness and healthy lifestyles. We encourage kids to "Get Up and Play, 60 Minutes a Day!"

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Today's youth football players are the NFL stars of tomorrow. The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities throughout the Chicago area. Through our youth camps, tackle and flag leagues, skills development clinics and junior training camps, our goal remains the same – to encourage children to play football.

BEARS CAMPS

Chicago Bears Youth Football Camps are the official youth camps of the Chicago Bears. Children between the ages of 6-14 learn to run, throw, catch, defend, form block, form tackle and explode out of a stance with proper technique and improved speed. These week-long camps feature safe, non-contact football instruction and athletic development as well as instruction about good nutrition, proper hydration, and rest and recovery.

For more information about Chicago Bears Youth Football Camps, please visit www.BearsCamps.com or call (312) 226-7776.

VOLUNTEERISM

Hands-on volunteerism is one of the most fulfilling and rewarding ways to give back to the community. The Chicago Bears understand the importance of finding the time to actively make a difference in the lives of people who are most in need. Because of this, we implement and support a wide variety of programs that encourage not only Bears players, coaches and staff, but entire communities, to join together to help deserving individuals, children and families throughout Chicagoland.

MILITARY

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting the men and women in the United States Military, and our ties date back to when our founder, George S. Halas, served in the U.S. Navy during both World War I and World War II. We are proud to continue this tradition through numerous programs and initiatives that provide support and show thanks to those who serve our country and protect our freedom. We also honor the history and heritage of Soldier Field, which is a memorial to all the men and women who have served our country.

BEARS CARE

Bears Care, the charitable beneficiary of the Chicago Bears, is committed to improving the quality of life for people in the Chicagoland community, especially disadvantaged children and their families, through targeted programs supporting education, youth athletics, and medical research and health awareness programs focusing on breast and ovarian cancer.

For the fourth year in a row, Bears Care will coordinate the popular "Real Bears Fans Wear Pink" t-shirt campaign during the month of October. Fans are encouraged to wear the t-shirts on Sunday, October 2 when the Bears and NFL recognize National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The success of the campaign has allowed Bears Care to distribute over $325,000 since the 2008 season to organizations in the Chicago area that provide care, assistance and support services to breast cancer patients and their families.
